Cold facts and warm bodies: Jacob Zuma's quest for justice without law. 13 April 2016. South African President Jacob Zuma's remarks about the law last week to the National House of Traditional Leaders in Pretoria were cryptic. But the timing was telling. 'I think we can resolve these matters in an African way, not through the law.

Justice without law? - OPINION | Politicsweb

"An insightful and scholarly historical survey of the myriad ways in which disputes have been handled 'outside' the law and usually, though not necessarily, without lawyers."-- New York Law Journal "Auerbach masterfully chronicles how the American legal profession has consistently routed the forces of nonconfrontational dispute resolution throughout American history.

Justice: advancing access to human rights and the rule of law. Due to COVID-19, all criminal trials have been suspended. JUSTICE considers it vital that solutions are found to ensure trials can restart as soon as possible. For these reasons we have been testing whether, during this emergency when the risk of infection is so dangerous, technology can support virtual jury trials that are fair and enable effective participation.
